

“For nation will rise against nation,
and kingdom against kingdom.
And there will be famines, pestilences,
and earthquakes in various places.
All these are the beginning of sorrows.”

The Olivet Discourse is found in three places
in the New Testament:

Matthew 24-25, Mark 13, and Luke 21.

The entire teaching is Jesus' response to some questions asked by His disciples after they were admiring the beauty of the Temple.

Let's look at a combined account of these questions.

The Olivet Discourse

The Olivet Discourse

(MT) Then Jesus went out and departed from the temple, and His disciples came up to show Him the buildings of the temple— (LK) how it was adorned with beautiful stones and donations.

(MK) One of His disciples said to Him, “Teacher, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!”

Let no one deceive you by any means; (why) for that Day will not come unless the falling away (apostasía) comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things?
