Easter

This is the time of the year Christians worldwide celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ after His crucifixion and death.

Easter

This is the time of the year Christians worldwide celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ after His crucifixion and death.

The meaning of Easter is summed up in Romans 4:20-25 regarding the righteousness imputed (accounted) to Abraham, and us, through faith.

Romans 4:20-22

Romans 4:20-22

He (Abraham) did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, (1) giving glory to God, and (2) being fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform. And therefore “it (Abraham’s faith) was accounted (imputed, reckoned) to him (Abraham) for righteousness.”

On this Easter morning, in addition to thanking Jesus for His death and resurrection that provided for us justification with God and the forgiveness of sins, let us also remember that His resurrection provided our sanctification (to be set apart for a holy purpose) and enables us to live our life today under the power and authority of the Holy Spirit.
