

Beloved, now we are children of God;
and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him,
for we shall see Him as He is.

Fear

Fear

Fear is an unpleasant emotion caused by the belief that someone or something is dangerous, likely to cause pain, or a threat.

Fear

Fear is an unpleasant emotion caused by the belief that someone or something is dangerous, likely to cause pain, or a threat.

Fear, like faith, must have an object – which can either be legitimate or illegitimate.

Fear vs. Truth

Fear vs. Truth

Even now men cannot look at the light when it is bright in the skies, when the wind has passed and cleared them. He comes from the north as golden splendor; with God is awesome majesty. As for the Almighty, we cannot find Him; He is excellent in power, in judgment and abundant justice; He does not oppress.

Therefore men fear Him;
He shows no partiality to any who are wise of heart.”

Fear vs. Truth

Fear vs. Truth

Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as He is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love. We love Him because He first loved us.

Fear vs. Truth

Fear vs. Truth

Truth:

Fear vs. Truth

Truth: We fear because our God is too small.

Fear vs. Truth

Truth: We fear because our God is too small.
He is too small to fix our marriage.

Fear vs. Truth

Truth: We fear because our God is too small.

He is too small to fix our marriage.

He is too small to heal our hurts.

Fear vs. Truth

Truth: We fear because our God is too small.

He is too small to fix our marriage.

He is too small to heal our hurts.

He is too small to trust with our children.

Fear vs. Truth

Truth: We fear because our God is too small.

He is too small to fix our marriage.

He is too small to heal our hurts.

He is too small to trust with our children.

He is too small to confront and defeat evil.

Fear vs. Truth

Truth: We fear because our God is too small.

He is too small to fix our marriage.

He is too small to heal our hurts.

He is too small to trust with our children.

He is too small to confront and defeat evil.

He is too small to take care of my financial needs.

Fear vs. Truth

Truth: We fear because our God is too small.

He is too small to fix our marriage.

He is too small to heal our hurts.

He is too small to trust with our children.

He is too small to confront and defeat evil.

He is too small to take care of my financial needs.

He is too small to trust with my future.

Fear vs. Truth

Truth: We fear because our God is too small.

He is too small to fix our marriage.

He is too small to heal our hurts.

He is too small to trust with our children.

He is too small to confront and defeat evil.

He is too small to take care of my financial needs.

He is too small to trust with my future.

And He is too small to find me a spouse.

Fear vs. Truth

He is just too small for me to trust.

Fear vs. Truth

He is just too small for me to trust.

Colossians 2:10 states that you are
“complete (or, to make full, to abound) in Him.”

Fear vs. Truth

He is just too small for me to trust.

Colossians 2:10 states that you are
“complete (or, to make full, to abound) in Him.”

But is He complete in you?

Fear vs. Truth

He is just too small for me to trust.

Colossians 2:10 states that you are
“complete (or, to make full, to abound) in Him.”

But is He complete in you?

Or do you need to take matters into your own hands
because He is somewhat lacking or insufficient?

Fear vs. Truth

We will daily choose to either believe the truth about God or to fear the circumstances we don't feel He is able to take care of Himself.

Fear vs. Truth

We will daily choose to either believe the truth about God or to fear the circumstances we don't feel He is able to take care of Himself.

Truth:

Fear vs. Truth

We will daily choose to either believe the truth about God or to fear the circumstances we don't feel He is able to take care of Himself.

Truth:

He is the only legitimate object of our fear and reverence and awe.

Fear vs. Truth

If You, LORD, should mark iniquities (or, sins),
O Lord, who could stand?

But there is forgiveness with You,
(why) that You may be feared.

Psalm 130:3-4

Fear vs. Truth

If You, LORD, should mark iniquities (or, sins),
O Lord, who could stand?

But there is forgiveness with You,
(why) that You may be feared.

Psalm 130:3-4

Fear vs. Truth

For you have not come to the mountain that may be touched and that burned with fire, and to blackness and darkness and tempest, and the sound of a trumpet and the voice of words, so that those who heard it begged that the word should not be spoken to them anymore. (For they could not endure what was commanded: “And if so much as a beast touches the mountain, it shall be stoned or shot with an arrow.” And so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, “I am exceedingly afraid and trembling.”)

Fear vs. Truth

But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and church of the firstborn who are registered in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than that of Abel.
