

Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
and lean not on your own understanding;
in all your ways acknowledge Him,
and He shall direct your paths.

The Reality of Faith

The Reality of Faith

Transformation comes by the renewing of our minds.

The Reality of Faith

Transformation comes by the renewing of our minds.

And our mind is renewed when we choose
(our action) to live by faith and not by what we see,
think, or feel.

The Reality of Faith

Transformation comes by the renewing of our minds.

And our mind is renewed when we choose
(our action) to live by faith and not by what we see,
think, or feel.

Faith activates all the promises of God.

The Reality of Faith

Transformation comes by the renewing of our minds.

And our mind is renewed when we choose
(our action) to live by faith and not by what we see,
think, or feel.

Faith activates all the promises of God.

For without faith, His promises are simply words to us because we refuse to empower them into our lives by believing them as true, and then living like they are.

The Reality of Faith

The Reality of Faith

But without faith it is impossible (not capable of occurring under any circumstances) to please Him, (why) for he who comes to God must believe that He is (the Ever Present One, the I AM THAT I AM), and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently (qualifier) seek Him.

Hebrews 11:6

The Reality of Faith

But without faith it is impossible (not capable of occurring under any circumstances) to please Him, (why) for he who comes to God must believe that He is (the Ever Present One, the I AM THAT I AM), and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently (qualifier) seek Him.

I can read the theory and see a little of the application, but how is this done to the extent I can have faith God will “direct my paths”?

Proverbs 3:5-6

I can read the theory and see a little of the application, but how is this done to the extent I can have faith God will “direct my paths”?

Let's look once again at what it says.

Proverbs 3:5-6

Proverbs 3:5-6

Trust (bāṭaḥ - to be confident, to have faith, to believe. It expresses the feeling of safety and security that is felt when one can completely rely on someone or something else)

And what you have to give Him, which is yourself,

He has already promised to accept - Rom. 12:1.

You are not defined by your mistakes and failures, but you are defined by His forgiveness and choice in you.

The “How” Questions

Be future oriented and not stuck in the past.

Recognize God can do anything He wants - Ps. 115:3.

And what you have to give Him, which is yourself,

He has already promised to accept - Rom. 12:1.

You are not defined by your mistakes and failures, but you are defined by His forgiveness and choice in you.

The key is to live in these truths and not in what you think or feel or what others tell you.
