

Then He said to them,
“With fervent desire I have desired to eat
this Passover with you before I suffer.”

Q: What happens at the Lord's Supper?

A: That really depends on you.

The Communion with Our Lord

Q: What happens at the Lord's Supper?

A: That really depends on you.

How much have you prepared to commune with the Lord today? Do you have an expectation of meeting with Him? And if so, how have you prepared yourself to meet with Him? Do you realize the Lord of the Universe has invited you to come to His table?

Q: What should happen at the Lord's Supper?

A: Again, that really depends on you.

Jesus specifically set this time apart for us to experience an intimate communion with Him.

It is much more than a religious sacrament.

It is a time for us to repent of our sins, cleanse our hearts before Him, and then partake in the sufferings (death) and blessings (resurrection) with Him.

And we are to experience this union with Him in our soul, not just in our minds. And the way to do that (the "how" questions) begins with your spiritual preparation and prayer. After all, He has invited you to dine with Him at His table at His request.
