Answer

Then I'm in grave danger of being taken captive by the seductive teachings of this world.

I'm in imminent peril of being deceived by the father of lies, Satan himself.

Answer

Then I'm in grave danger of being taken captive by the seductive teachings of this world.

I'm in imminent peril of being deceived by the father of lies, Satan himself.

I'm dangerously close to elevating the teachings of fallen men to the same, if not to a higher place in my life, than the Word of God.

Answer

Then I'm in grave danger of being taken captive by the seductive teachings of this world.

I'm in imminent peril of being deceived by the father of lies, Satan himself.

I'm dangerously close to elevating the teachings of fallen men to the same, if not to a higher place in my life, than the Word of God.

And we do it all the time.

What would he gain from that relationship?

Question

Why would a Godly son be enticed by sinners?

What could they possibly offer him that he would want?

What would he gain from that relationship?

What's the payoff for the son?

Answer

Answer

The son would seek out the companionship of the sinners in order to have his deep needs met that should have been met in Christ.

Answer

The son would seek out the companionship of the sinners in order to have his deep needs met that should have been met in Christ.

In other words, the son would try to satisfy his own longings for acceptance, belonging, love and purpose in his own flesh when Christ has already satisfied those needs in His flesh on the cross.

My Sufficiency in Christ

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things were created through Him and for Him.

My Sufficiency in Christ

And He is before all things, and in Him all things consist. And He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.
