

I will praise You, O LORD, with my whole heart;
I will tell of all Your marvelous works.
I will be glad and rejoice in You;
I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High.

The Proclamation reads in part...

Thanksgiving Proclamation of 1777

Thanksgiving Proclamation of 1777

It being the indispensable duty of all nations, not only to offer up their supplications to Almighty God, the giver of all good, for His gracious assistance in a time of distress, but also in a solemn and public manner, to give Him praise for His goodness in general, and especially for great and signal interpositions of His Providence in their behalf...

Thanksgiving Proclamation of 1777

Do hereby recommend it to the inhabitants of these States in general, to observe and request the several states to interpose their authority, in appointing and commanding the observation of Thursday the Twenty-eighth day of November as a day of SOLEMN THANKSGIVING to GOD for all His mercies;

1 John 2:15-17

1 John 2:15-17

Do not love (agapaō) the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves (agapaō) the world, (what) the love (agapaō) of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world— (described as) the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life— is not of the Father but is of the world.

And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.

1 John 1:9

1 John 1:9

We confess and He forgives.

1 John 1:9

We confess and He forgives.

And He also promised to cleanse us from the power and guilt of sin and defilement in our lives by removing from us all (pás) wickedness, impurity, and the things we do wrong that are an offense to God.

1 John 1:9

We confess and He forgives.

And He also promised to cleanse us from the power and guilt of sin and defilement in our lives by removing from us all (pás) wickedness, impurity, and the things we do wrong that are an offense to God.

So do you believe this promise?

1 John 1:9

We confess and He forgives.

And He also promised to cleanse us from the power and guilt of sin and defilement in our lives by removing from us all (pás) wickedness, impurity, and the things we do wrong that are an offense to God.

So do you believe this promise?

Are you ready to step out in faith to prove it is true?
